Plans Second Whirlpool Battle In Barrel

A second bout with the Niagara whirlpool rapids in a barrel is planned by William "Red" Hill Jr., seen in the barrel his father made famous. A record of Niagara river rescues and other feats is scrawled on the sides. Hill is raising funds for a memorial to his father. He has planned his "trip" for the latter part of July or early August. In his two-hour battle with the turbulent river two years ago, he foiled the police who tried to stop his death-defying ride when he slipped the barrel into the river at a lonely section.

Frankie Parker Wins

LONDON (AP)—Frankie Parker of Los Angeles, top-seeded favorite to win the Wimbledon tennis championship vacated by Jack Kramer, breezed into the fourth round of the tournament today with a 6-0, 6-1, 6-0 victory over Irishman Cyril Kemp. Parker needed only 35 minutes to wipe out the tall, 33-year-old Irish Davis Cup player.

Germans Unload Old Currency

A U.S. M.P. has his hands full trying to hold back Germans in Frankfurt as they sought to buy goods in a store before the deadline set for the issuance of new currency. The Allied announcement that new money would be put into circulation to fit German economy into the recovery program prompted the stampede.

Canada Not Likely Target For Aggression By A-Bombs

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Minister Claxton declared today that there is no "easy nor sudden" solution to Canada's defence problems and pinpointed Russia without naming that country directly as the "only one possible aggressor" in the next war. Opening a Commons debate on defence estimates, he said Canada's defence plans are being laid on the military assumption that this country "is almost certainly going to be neither the Belgium nor the Bikini" in the short-term opening period of another conflict. A potential aggressor, if it had atomic weapons at all, would use them on targets of "the greatest strategic importance" and "it is very unlikely that in the near future such an aggressor would use any such weapons he had on many targets in Canada." But there was "no easy guarantee" of security. It could not be bought for $1,000,000,000 a year. Rather, it must be patiently and anxiously striven for. "The signs point ahead to countries like Canada having to face a long period of great uncertainty," he said. "We cannot live with our problems day by day without clear heads and stout hearts and mutual support." The minister said Canada would spend more this year on her air forces than on either the army or navy, for the first time in history.

Fight Seems Sure To Go On Tonight

NEW YORK (CP)—A bright sun burned its way through a heavy overcast this afternoon and indications were that the Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott fight would go as scheduled at 7 p.m. P.D.T. The fight in Yankee Stadium was postponed 24 hours Wednesday because of rain. Louis, who weighed 213½ pounds at the weigh-in Wednesday, went for a six-mile walk this morning and hurried back to bed. He plans to drive to a New York City hideout late in the day. Walcott strolled the sidewalks of New York as his only exercise. He weighed 194½ pounds Wednesday. The weather bureau forecast for tonight was widely scattered showers and temperatures in the low fifties. The 15-round engagement will be Louis' 25th title defence and, he says, his last fight. If washed out a second time, the bout would be staged Friday.

Irwin Quits Israel

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Irgun Zvai Leumi ordered its soldiers today to quit Israel's army and announced that the organization is withdrawing its "recognition" of the Israeli government. Irgun is a Jewish extremist fighting force whose munitions ship Altalena was blown up by Israeli soldiers Tuesday night after a bloody battle on the Tel Aviv beach. The crew was seeking to run in arms, forbidden, under the United Nations' truce.

Taft, Stassen Lag; Need Big Landslide To Beat New Yorker

From Associated Press Dispatches
When the Republican National Convention adjourned at 4.50 this afternoon until 7.30, it looked as if little short of a miracle could prevent the nomination of Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York as its presidential candidate. With two ballots counted, the call of the states gave him 515 delegate votes, 33 short of the 548 needed to win. Senator Robert A. Taft, trailing in second place had 274 and Harold E. Stassen had 149. The remainder of the delegates voted: Vandenberg 62, Reece 1, Baldwin 19, Warren 57, Joe Martin 10, MacArthur 7.

Even if all Stassen's votes went to Taft on the third count, the senator from Ohio would still need all Vandenberg's 62, Warren's 57, and four from the other four candidates left in the race to beat Dewey, and observers held this to be next to impossible. A more likely result, it is considered, is that Dewey will pick up the required 33 votes, with a safe margin above that number highly probable, on the next ballot. Seven men were nominated Wednesday night during six hours and 42 minutes of flaming oratory and flamboyant carnival which ended at 4.02 a.m. E.D.T. In addition to Dewey, Taft, Stassen and Vandenberg, the nominees were Governor Earl Warren of California; Senator Raymond Baldwin of Connecticut and Gen. Douglas MacArthur of Wisconsin, Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces in the Pacific. More than 13,000 persons packed Convention Hall during the nominating speeches Wednesday night. The end came when the thin and worn hero of Bataan and Corregidor, Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, put in the name of the last candidate, his comrade-in-victory, Gen. MacArthur. A few minutes of feeble demonstration was put on by the eight Wisconsin delegates and their aides who supported MacArthur. This forenoon Dewey leaders claimed they would reach 500 votes—only 48 short of the nomination—by the second ballot. And with that start, they said, nothing could stop him. These claims were quickly and vigorously disputed from the other camps.

Half Canada Lacks Adequate Housing, Mayoral Meet Told

HALIFAX (CP)—J. O. Asselin, chairman of the Montreal Metropolitan Commission, today told the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities that "nearly half of the Canadian population is unable to provide itself with shelter and federal authorities seem unaware of this fact." The conference, which Wednesday urged a Dominion-provincial-municipal conference on housing, reaffirmed its stand after Rev. H. Lloyd Henderson, Mayor of Portage La Prairie, Man., said that under present conditions many Canadians would be unable to house themselves—"neither they nor their children's children." Mr. Asselin and Mr. Henderson agreed there were only two solutions to the problem: 1. Raise the standard of wages throughout Canada. 2. Take temporary measures for rental subsidizing. Mayor Grant E. Mayor of Barrie, Ont., interjected: "Are the Canadian people aware that shiploads of construction materials are being sent out of Canada... Why should we pay bootleg prices for construction and at the same time export materials?"

Sympathy On Floods

HALIFAX (CP)—The convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities today passed a resolution offered by Mayor P. C. George of Victoria "viewing with deep feeling and regret the paralyzing effect of floods upon our fellow Canadians in certain parts of British Columbia." The resolution expressed sympathy for the victims of the floods and urged the federal government to take steps to alleviate the suffering of the people affected. The convention also passed a resolution urging the federal government to take steps to improve the housing situation in Canada.

Ottawa Plans To Spend $500,000 On Island Buildings, Wharves, Harbors

The federal government plans to spend approximately $500,000 on repairs and improvements to buildings, wharves, harbors and other facilities in the Vancouver Island area during the current fiscal year.

The government's plans for capital expenditures were detailed in the House of Commons Wednesday night in the tabling by Finance Minister Abbott of supplementary estimates of $197,367,420. These cover expenditures unforeseen earlier in the session when the main budget was presented and they bring the government's estimated expenditure for the 1948-49 fiscal year well over the two-billion mark to $2,182,213,480.

Appropriations asked for the federal public works department, according to Canadian Press dispatches from Ottawa include the following sums for works on Vancouver Island:

Victoria Astrophysical Observatory (repairs, alterations and improvements—further amount required) $5,000; Duncan public building (alterations and improvements—further amount required) $6,000; Victoria harbor dredging—further amount required) $30,000; Campbell River wharf replacement, $132,000; Chemainus harbor improvements (further amount required, including a revote of $6,700) $7,000; Comox, toward wharf replacement, $100,000; Nanaimo wharf repairs and improvements (further amount required) $12,000; Port Alberni dredging, $40,000; Port Alberni harbor improvements (further amount required) $34,000; Tofino harbor repairs and improvements, $20,000, and Ucluelet West floats, $7,500.

FRASER RIVER WORK

The public works appropriations also include $350,000 for Fraser River improvements, a revote of $31,000 for remedial work on Lulu and Sea Islands and $13,000 for extension of channel protection in the Fraser River-Kirkland Island area. There is also a vote of $75,000 for preliminary costs of the federal government's share of the Okanagan flood control project.

For Vancouver the federal government proposes to purchase and renovate the Beggs Building at a total cost of $1,060,000; spend $130,000 more on the site for a customs building; $800,000 on purchase, alterations and extension of the Alvin Estates building, and $35,000 on improvements and alterations to the immigration building.

HEALTH, PENSIONS

Of the total supplementary votes the health and veterans' affairs departments will get the lion's share, $30,000,000 being asked for distribution to the provinces to assist them in improving their public health services, and to help lay the basis for a national health insurance plan; $13,000,000 sought for hospital construction; $4,395,000 to assist provinces in strengthening general public health services; $625,000 for a health survey; $3,000,000 for tuberculosis control; $4,000,000 for mental health grant; $275,000 for venereal disease control; $500,000 for crippled children's grant; $500,000 for professional training grant; $100,000 for public health research grant, and $3,500,000 for cancer control grant.

Mr. Abbott is seeking $41,417,500 for the veterans' affairs department to cover pension and allowance increases granted to veterans and their dependents during the current session.

For the reconstruction department $18,300,000 is asked largely to cover the construction of new homes and $2,303,137 is sought for the immigration branch of the resources department. This last sum includes more than $1,340,000 to cover the cost of flying displaced persons to Canada.

Special To The Times

SIDNEY — North Saanich Team succeeded in retaining the city businessmen's trophy, emblematic of the best all-round athletic performance at the annual carnival and sports meet, which attracted 850 to Sidney War Memorial Park Wednesday afternoon.

A gala parade and crowning of the Sidney Carnival Queen preceded the sports meet with sunny skies helping to draw a good attendance at the various events.

Team scores in the sports meet were as follows: North Saanich, 43; Y.M.C.A., 30; Brentwood, 10; Mount Newton, 5, and R.C.A.F., 2. Jim Robertson, not attached to any team, took the services cup as winner of the men's high aggregate with 15 points.

NORTH SAANICH WINS

The G. G. White Trophy went to North Saanich High School with 43 points.

Hundreds gathered at the Memorial Park for the colorful Pro-Reg display, maypole dancing and crowning of Queen Peggy Pratt. Jean Dyer, a princess of last year, placed the crown on the new queen's head. Princesses Joyce Bickford and Norma Nunn, trainbearers Sharon Beswick and Norma Marshall and crownbearer Lynn McLellan, shared the platform.

One of the best parades of decorated floats yet seen in Sidney preceded events at the park. Leaving Second Street, the parade was headed by the queen's float and passed along Beacon Avenue to the grounds.

Arthur J. Ash, M.L.A., awarded the prizes and praised the quality of the float exhibits. Winners were: 1, W. W. Gardner; 2, Sidney Pro-Reg team; 3, Sidney School; and 4, Mrs. Peggy Warner.

Always a highlight of the carnival was the pet parade with Murray Christian taking first place, Nonnie Eckert, second, and Joyce Bowker, third.

New Berlin Musical Melody Masterpiece

There's magic in music, but when it's Irving Berlin's music, a whole picture full of it, sung and danced by Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire and gorgeous Joan Caulfield, it's the nearest thing to heaven. So what could be more appropriate for the title of such a film than "Blue Skies," the Paramount Technicolor musical calendar of the best tunes written by America's foremost composer of popular songs. The picture opened today at the Rio Theatre, and left the entire audience humming with delight.

50,000 Seen As Ideal City Of Future

HALIFAX (CP)—The ideal Canadian city of the future would have a population of about 50,000, have service roads for local traffic, boundary highways for through traffic, dwellings would be within easy reach of primary schools, parks and stores, and plants would be at the doorstep of workers' homes.

This concept was given to a Canadian Federation of Mayors conference here Wednesday by D. W. Jonsson, provincial architect for New Brunswick.

"The key to the whole system," he said, "is neighborhood planning—self-contained neighborhood units."

Mr. Jonsson outlined the position of various parts of the country in this respect.

Vancouver had a highly developed neighborhood system and was planning further units. "That city is going places, but it has a mammoth job ahead."

On the prairies there were two great handicaps: The "awful" imprint of the early subdivider and the very real memories of the last depression.

Saskatoon, however, was described as one of Canada's cleanest, brightest cities.

"What about my first solid foods?"

When your doctor says it's time for fruits and vegetables, your baby has a brand new problem. For these foods are fibrous. The nurishment is held within cell walls, and baby's inexperienced little tummy sometimes has trouble breaking down the cells which contain the nourishment.

To make the digestion "problem" extra easy for your baby, Libby's alone take an added precaution. After straining the foods, Libby's homogenize them by a special process which breaks up the rough fibres and explodes the food cells.

This makes Libby's Baby Foods so extra easy to digest that clinical tests show that even a six-week-old baby can digest Libby's easily, without upset. This is not true of foods which are strained, but not homogenized.

Commons Approves Income Tax Change

OTTAWA (CP)—The first general revision of income tax law in years won final approval from the Commons today after one last criticism from the C.C.F.

Rodney Young, C.C.F., Vancouver Centre, renewed protests against a 3 per cent tax on patronage dividends of co-operatives. He claimed the government was wrongly interpreting the dividends as profits and predicted such thinking would force the co-operatives into political activity as happened in Britain.

5 Seamen Injured In New Outbreak Of Violence In Strike

WELLAND, Ont. (CP)—Five men were taken to hospital today for treatment of injuries received when they were beaten with clubs and iron bars in a fresh outburst of violence in the Great Lakes shipping strike.

The five were in a group of 17 traveling in a truck from Brantford to the Welland South docks. It was reported they were to man the freighter Joseph B. Burke of Sarnia Steamship Lines. She has been tied up since June 17 in the shipping strike called by the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.).

The truck was intercepted by another truck and the men were attacked. Royal Canadian Mounted and Ontario Provincial Police launched an immediate investigation. Ten men were placed under arrest and police said they would be charged with assault.

Britain Cuts Off Supplies To Reds' Zone

BERLIN (Reuter)—British military authorities banned today all shipments of coal, steel and other supplies from the British to the Soviet zone of Germany.

Also today Gen. Lucius Clay said the Russians "cannot drive us out of Berlin by any action short of war."

This warning by the American Military Governor, made at Heidelberg, came as the Russians tightened their squeeze on Berlin. They cut off electric power to the western allies' sectors of the city and halted all food shipments on railway lines running from Western Germany.

Clay said the latest moves of the Russians indicate they "are trying to put on the final pressure to drive us out of Berlin." The official Russian German Communist press demanded anew that the western allies quit the city.

HOSPITALS SPARED

The Berlin power shutdown affected the British, United States and French zones. The only areas spared were those where hospitals or other important public institutions are located.

The Russian-controlled Berlin radio announced the western sectors must expect more power shutdowns during the night. This amounted to a warning of day and night shutoffs apparently intended to prevent factories which shut down during the day from engaging in night operations.

Reports from the French sector said water service was being disturbed there.

The Russians and German Communists threatened economic reprisals against any of the 3,400,000 Berliners who accepted the western allies' new currency.

DEFIANT ANSWER

Demand in the Russian official and German Communist press that the western allies get out of Berlin got a defiant answer from Berlin's Socialists who proclaimed: "Berlin must remain free—never Communist."

The Socialists announced a mass meeting tonight in the French sector under the slogan "Berliners, Fight for Your Freedom." It underlined the political struggle between the Communists and their foes for Berlin.

The three western sectors of the city contain two-thirds of the entire population.

NO BARRAGE BALLOONS

LONDON (Reuter)—A Foreign Office spokesman today described press reports that Russian authorities had placed barrage balloons between Berlin and the western sectors as "completely unfounded and totally untrue."

He warned against a probable "state of wild rumors" about the situation in Berlin, which he described as "serious" but not worse than that.

The Foreign Office is watching the situation closely, he added.

Report Soviet Group Works On New East German State

WARSAW (AP)—The foreign ministers of Russia and seven satellite countries were reliably reported today to be putting the finishing touches on plans to set up a separate government in eastern Germany.

One conference observer said that would be their most likely answer to the Western Allies' proposed federalization of western Germany.

This source added, however, that Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia and his colleagues probably would go one step further than the western powers.

If a separate government is set up, he said, it still, in the opinion of Russia and her neighbors, would be a government aimed at German unity.

Leipzig has been mentioned as a government centre. Conference observers who cannot be named, said the eastern countries would declare any government formed to be open to all Germans.

(The western powers invited the Russian zone to participate in formation of the German government, but the Russians turned down the bid.)

WOULD ASK SUPPORT

Such a government would be expected to seek recognition by the support of German Communists in the western occupation zones.

Thus Russia and her neighbors could keep effective channels open for spreading communism and waging Russia's own cold war against the western powers.

More Soldiers Moving Into London Docks

LONDON (Reuter)—More troops moved into London docks early today to unload food cargoes as the port strike entered its 11th day without any sign of a general return to work.

Official figures showed 18,377 port workers were still on strike in the port of London; 1,842 have resumed work.

About 150 ships are tied up in the Thames as a result of the strike.

At its peak Wednesday, the stoppage involved 20,000 port workers, including dockers, stevedores, cold storage workers, lightermen and bargemen.

Three hundred troops of the Coldstream Guards were sent to the docks for the first time Wednesday to move perishable foodstuffs.

There was more life in the Thames today as cargo on about 10 ships was moving compared with only five ships working Wednesday.

MEAT CARGOES DELAYED

A trickle of men were returning at some of the smaller wharves, but at the great Royal Docks, where half a dozen meat ships are waiting, the stoppage was solid. Unless these ships are unloaded before the weekend Britain's meat ration for next week may not be met.

The strikers demand removal of an "unjust sentence" against 11 fellow workers for refusing to unload "dirty cargo" without extra pay and a revision of the disciplinary machinery in the docks.

Acute Shortage Of Butter Predicted In Canada This Winter

Warning that the Dominion may suffer this winter from one of the worst butter shortages in her history was issued here today by dairy industry officials.

Production of butter is down in these summer months when, normally, it would be at its highest. It is estimated that production is down by 500,000 pounds and that the year's stock of butter will be down a least 11,000,000 pounds.

A Victoria spokesman said the reason for lowered butter production is largely economic.

"It simply hasn't paid the farmer to produce," he pointed out that butter prices have been controlled but the cost of production has not. Hay has gone up 300 per cent in price, and grain for feeding cattle is nearly double in price.

Similar predictions of butter shortage are being made in Ottawa and Vancouver. In the Dominion capital, J. H. Duplan, president of the National Dairy Council of Canada, said that "unless immediate action is taken to encourage an improved supply of butter and other products, the situation will become more acute than in 1947."

The Vancouver spokesman suggested the only solution was to allow free importation of butter from New Zealand, but the Victoria official was inclined to disagree. Such action might serve as a temporary measure to defeat the developing shortage, but he considered it a dangerous move to make because of the possibility of price levels being depressed in the future as they were in the past when New Zealand butter was imported.

The majority of butter consumed in B.C. comes from the prairies and only a very small part of butter consumption is catered to by B.C. producers.

Apathy In Vote On By-Laws

Property owners were showing little interest at the polls today in three by-laws being put to a vote, two of which call for the borrowing by the city of $1,311,800 for improvements to the water distribution system and a four-year road building program.

Early this afternoon only 525 of a possible 14,000 voters had cast their ballots.

This is 280 less than the number of voters who had turned out by noon to vote on the recent Memorial Arena by-law. Total vote on that issue was 3,059.

SEE DEFEAT

Officials believe the apathy of property owners means defeat of the money-borrowing by-laws. They cannot see defeat for the third by-law though, which asks for approval of the $3,472,628 price fixed for the sale of the city's water supply system to a Greater Victoria water board. The ratepayers at last December's elections voted overwhelmingly in favor of selling the system.

The three by-laws each require three-fifths of the total vote to carry.

Polls at the Market Building will remain open until 7 this evening, and M. Frank Hunter, returning officer, says all property owners registered a month before the vote can cast ballots.

Polls opened at 9 this morning. An hour later only 163 votes had

U.S. Court Orders Bar Ship Strikes

NEW YORK (AP)—New federal court orders barring threatened shipping strikes on three coasts and in the Great Lakes region were in effect today.

The orders were issued in New York, San Francisco and Cleveland Wednesday—on the eve of the expiration of temporary strike bans obtained by the government.

The "cooling-off" orders affect 70,000 shipping workers—members of the Maritime Union (C.I.O.) and two other C.I.O. unions—on the east and Gulf coasts.

In San Francisco, Judge George Harris extended for another 10 days the temporary restraining order issued June 14 against five unions representing 30,000 workers.

At 11 the number was 347. For the arena vote, 528 ballots had been cast by 11 in the morning, 805 by noon, 1,244 by 2 in the afternoon, 2,188 by 4.30.

Lowest vote seen here was in October, 1946, on the sale of the Willows fair grounds. Only 1,785 ratepayers turned out. In July, 1956, 1,956 votes were taken on three by-laws.

THE WARSAW PARLEY

A PART FROM THE FACT THAT Russia is still trying to make out that the western democracies are intent upon pursuing a policy of what the Moscow press describes as "imperialistic aggression"—what ever that may mean in precise Communist parlance—the meeting at present taking place in Warsaw under the obvious direction of the Soviet Union's Foreign Commissar Molotov is another manifestation of the Politburo's stubborn refusal to rejoin the wartime alliance except under its own totalitarian terms. To be sure, the Polish Foreign Minister announced to the assembled delegates that they had met "in the name of peace," but he immediately followed the Stalinist line when he re-echoed the threadbare assertion that the western allies' policy for trizonal Germany "threatened European peace and security."

What annoys the Kremlin is that its schemes for bringing all Europe under the Communistic flag are not working at all smoothly. The action of the United States Congress in finally approving the "Marshall Plan" for economic aid to the 16 states that need it, and are willing to put forth their own efforts in the way of self-help, upset the concept of a completely chaotic continent ripe for the type of exploitation in which Russia has become adept in recent times. And Molotov and Company have done well for themselves behind the "Iron Curtain." Spokesmen for the seven satellite states are now in the Polish capital saying their pieces in the presence of the "ring-master" from Moscow.

Just what this gathering is intended to prove to the western democracies in particular and to the world in general may be clarified shortly. One hesitates to think that Prime Minister Stalin plans to father any kind of ultimatum to his former collaborators in the war against the Nazi and Fascist tyrants. But if he should be harboring such an idea, thinking, for example, that the most powerful nation in the world is too preoccupied with its own political problems to be weaned from the domestic scene, the plain inference from the United States military commander in Berlin that he does not propose to be "pushed around" by anybody should be a signal for the application of commonsense—and extreme caution on the part of the Soviet Union.

This persistent talk by Russia's leaders and their controlled newspapers of sinister designs on the Soviet Union by the western democracies is getting monotonous in its utter stupidity. What such countries as the members of the British Commonwealth and the United States desire and demand more than anything else is an early settlement of all the unfinished business of which the world became legatee as a result of the Second World War—plus an enduring peace, based on justice for all, as envisioned in the Charter of the United Nations which Russia helped to frame and signed three years ago tomorrow. The men of the Kremlin have produced most of the stumbling blocks to the realization of that ideal. They cannot deny the truth of that assertion.

FURTHER COMPLICATIONS

THE CURRENCY WAR THAT IS AT present complicating life for the Germans and the occupying powers appears certain to divide still further the Russians and their former allies of the western democracies, as well as to add new difficulties to the process of living under conflicting authorities. As far as the German population is concerned, sympathy will vary in relation to the favor with which one views the nation that supported Hitler and his master race doctrine. But a bigger issue than German convenience is at stake. The currency moves by East and West are parts of a greater struggle with world implications.

With the amalgamation of the western zones into a unified area, the three powers concerned—Britain, the United States and France—found it expedient to reform the currency and establish it on a sounder basis. At the same time, the issue of the new Deutschmark was made the occasion of a check-up on black market activities, which have seriously affected the economic stability and the exchange rates of the former Reich. It was announced at the time that the new western currency would not be floated in Berlin, which is an island in the Russian zone divided into eastern and western sectors. But the subsequent Russian move to inaugurate their own currency for the territory they occupy, and their announcement that they would extend its use over all Berlin, including the sectors governed by the western powers, was a little too much for the West. Such a unilateral move, imposing Soviet monetary jurisdiction over the whole area of the capital, was seen as a violation of the four-power agreements. The West has therefore decreed that their currency will be used in the parts of Berlin controlled by Britain, the United States and France—about two-thirds of the city. Russia has threatened reprisals on German residents who support the western money regulations.

Coming closely on Russia's renewed blockade of the East-West zone borders, the new schism accentuates the precarious nature of Germany's postwar position. Dis- memberment is now complete, and the future reunion of the two parts of this nation—an event which is generally acknowledged to be a prerequisite of European stability—appears more distant than ever.

WEIRD ADVICE

THERE ARE FEW WHO PERSONALLY know Mr. Stanley Knowles, the C.C.F. member of Parliament for Winnipeg North Centre, who would impute to him motives other than the most humanitarian and altruistic. His entry into the federal political field undoubtedly was inspired by a desire to better the lot of his fellowmen, and to that end he has devoted himself to a serious study of social, political and economic affairs. It therefore becomes more difficult to understand his thought processes when he forsakes economic reality for pious hopes and calls for an increase in tax exemptions which the stern facts of life obviously make impossible.

Mr. Knowles has suggested in the Commons that exemptions be raised from $750 to $1,200 for single persons, and from $1,500 to $2,400 for married persons. This would be a most welcome action, and Finance Minister Abbott was the first to agree that it would be well received. No one questions that. But the situation is not one of a tyrannical government enjoying itself by arbitrarily grinding the taxpayers, such as C.C.F. idealists sometimes apparently assume. Economic laws govern the actions of the Finance Department, just as they govern the transactions of the citizen's personal budget. And however much the Minister might like to curry popular favor by making spectacular concessions to those who carry the tax burden, the fact remains that the business of the country must be financed—and the people's pocketbooks are the main source of revenue.

The augmented calls that are made on government today for extension of social services, debt retirement, provision of public works and numerous other important projects, are not conducive to reduced taxes. The Progressive Conservative and C.C.F. cry of "Lower the taxes but increase the spending," carries an appeal to the voters in the home constituencies. But it sounds much better when the cries are in the Opposition than it would if they were in the government benches. It is all very well to shout about it when one has no responsibility, but it is a very different matter when one has the serious job of running the country and meeting the huge expenses of present-day commitments. This is something Mr. Knowles must know in his heart. We therefore find his attitude difficult to understand.

MR. 'AL' PRESCOTT

THE CLOSE PERSONAL INTEREST HE took in the musical development of the young people of this city, coupled with his leadership of the Victoria Philharmonic Orchestra, had won for Mr. Alfred Prescott a wide circle of friends in this community. In almost two score years of residence he had made a major contribution to the artistic life of the capital, teaching and encouraging budding musicians, and bringing direction to the efforts of the more mature. His death last night ended a career of usefulness and friendliness that added much to Victoria's enjoyment of the cultural medium to which he devoted his life here.

A man of recognized talents, a popular leader of both classical and dance orchestras, he had given his time in later years to the supervision of music in the schools of this district, where his particular abilities were reflected in a growing interest in his subject. As his multitude of friends mourn his passing today, they find comfort in the knowledge that the success of his work provides a fitting and abiding epitaph for one who spent his energies freely in the interests of his fellow citizens.

WHAT DO THEY WANT?

THE EXACT AIMS OF THE IRGUN Zvai Leumi group in Palestine become more obscure and somewhat more sinister with the news that the organization has rebelled against the authority of the Israeli government and gone underground. This leftist faction, which earlier broke away from Haganah, and from which in turn the still more leftist Stern gang seceded, has been a dissident force ever since the Zionist movement gathered momentum. It consistently opposed British administration and was responsible for numerous illegal acts, all presumably with the aim of furthering the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine.

Attempts of Irgun Zvai Leumi to land arms and munitions this week in defiance of the Jewish-Arab truce agreement, have resulted in direct armed clashes with the official Haganah forces. By acting in this manner the organization has given the new state a severe test and has done serious harm to the cause of Zionism. Two Israeli government ministers have resigned as a result of the crisis, and the Arabs have been provided with cause for protest against Jewish violation of the truce. In view of these very obvious results of their action, the motives of Irgun Zvai Leumi must come under increased suspicion. They would appear to be other than the furtherance of the interests of the new Jewish state.

Walter Lippmann

THE POLITICS OF IT

THOUGH the Republican convention is almost certainly choosing the next United States President, the leaders who will make the choice would be fooling themselves if they thought the Republican Party has a dependable majority among the people. The majority now in sight for the November election is no doubt enough to win. But it is not as yet the kind of majority which they can count upon holding together even for two years, that is to say for the congressional and state elections of 1950, much less for four years.

The Republican majority today is made up of the minority of habitual Republicans plus all the people who want a change, who are tired of Truman and the 16 years of Democratic rule. There is certainly no majority which believes in salvation by the Republicans, no majority which knows what a Republican administration would be like.

A MAJORITY of that sort can melt as fast as a cake of ice in the broiling sun. Mr. Hoover was elected in 1928 by an electoral vote of 444 to 87. Two years later he had lost control of Congress. Two years after that Roosevelt defeated him by 472 to 59. In the popular vote during those four years, counting only the major party votes, the Republican percentage fell from nearly 59 per cent to less than 41 per cent. There must be at least 100 Republican congressmen who could not survive such a shift in the popular vote.

Therefore, unless the candidates and leaders are not thinking much beyond the November election, their main concern will not be how to beat Truman but how to make it reasonably certain that they have not only a big majority but a durable one.

THE PRACTICAL question, not only for the country and the world, of course, but also for the professional politicians, is not whether they win but how they win. Their real problem is how to consolidate their provisional majority into a stable majority over a period of at least eight years.

Now it must be evident that to nominate Martin or Bricker would mean that at the best they would have the smallest majority which any Republican could get. Large numbers of voters who are ready now to vote Republican would not vote at all. Considerable numbers would return reluctantly to Truman. It is not at all improbable that they would bolt, turn to the anti-Truman Democrats, and resort to some desperate expedient like the drafting of General Eisenhower. The Republicans, even if they had a majority in November, would not only have a relatively small one but it would also be highly unreliable.

LESS ACUTELY the same results would follow the nomination of Senator Taft. While he would be personally acceptable to many who could never put up with Martin or Bricker, it is quite certain that a Taft administration would have a very weak popular foundation. It might be that Taft, who has character and brains and genuine public spirit, could win over many who would begin by opposing him. But though he might grow strong in office, his position at the outset would be weak. Considering the enormous difficulties which the incoming administration will have to meet, it would be very serious to have as president a man who was not firmly and solidly established.

A TICKET—for the vice-presidency is of critical importance in the present situation—drawn from the Vandenberg-Dewey-Stassen-Warren-Duff Lodge combination would obviously have the widest, the most representative, and therefore the most durable popular base. This combination covers the whole Republican constituency except the irreconcilable diehards—the total reactionaries and the new isolationists who are rather aggressive expansionists and imperialists.

But it extends much further than that. It reaches into the new generation of voters, of whom the great majority have been Roosevelt Democrats, and into that very considerable mass of independents who had to vote for a third term and a fourth because the Martins and the Tabers left them no alternative.

IN THIS combination, Vandenberg, with Dewey or Stassen or Warren as his running mate, would most certainly and convincingly solidify the popular vote. The vulnerable figure is Dewey. That is because he may be tempted to get the nomination by making a deal which would leave the diehards with so much power in the new administration that, later on, he would have either to yield to them or to fight them. But for that very serious contingency, a strong case can be made that Dewey, all in all, though not the most popular, would be the most effective president of the lot. It is, however, a very big but. Dewey, if he got the nomination after refusing to compromise on the essentials of party control, would be a quite different president than a Dewey who got a synthetic nomination, flung together if not in a smoke-filled room, then on a spacious country estate.

We of the Salvation Army would esteem it a favor if, through the good offices of your paper, we may be accorded the privilege of expressing our appreciation to the citizens of Greater Victoria for the very generous response to the clothing appeal for our unfortunate neighbors in the Fraser Valley.

The response has been marvelous. We were able to ship 15 tons of good clothing and shoes, all of which was sorted and properly packed by a band of voluntary workers. We have now discontinued the appeal, and return to our regular Salvation Army duties.

Our many thanks to all who have helped to make this appeal the success it has been.

EVERYBODY HELPED

The Provincial S.P.C.A. ask the privilege of your columns to express sincere thanks to the army, navy and air force, the police, Red Cross and civilians for the splendid manner in which animals were handled in the flooded areas; and also for the co-operation given this society and its inspectors in our efforts to alleviate suffering. At a recent executive meeting, members listened with gratitude and pride to many instances where, through patience and great difficulty, animals were rescued from certain death. The comparatively small loss of life was due in a large measure to these people, to whom we offer our sincere appreciation.

BEEF AND BEEFING

With Canada's packing houses bulging with storage beef, it seems strange that diversion of Britain's quota to the U.S., as conjectured, should cause our prices to rise to the U.S. level. Or is that just an alibi to jack up prices and make a fabulous profit on storage beef during the subnormal marketing months—when cattle thrive on fresh pasture? . . . Shades of last year's butter episode!

Were our dollar devalued to 90c and the price of steaks rose to the U.S. level there'd be more beefing as our prices would be even higher. The Canadian consumer would be required to pay the 10 per cent premium in addition, because devaluation raises the domestic prices of exported commodities as well as those of imports on which the exchange is paid.

A U.N. Mission Examines Poland

By PETER EDSON from Washington

ONE OF THE FRANKEST reports on conditions behind the Iron Curtain has been made public by F.A.O.—the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations—after a special mission survey on the farm situation in Poland.

DEPLORABLE STATE

The report indicates that Polish agriculture is in a pretty deplorable state. There is insufficient grain production to give the Poles an adequate diet. The yield of grain from Polish land is decreasing, due to lack of fertilizer. The Polish diet is also inadequate in proteins, fruits and vegetables. Food spoilage and waste through improper canning and handling methods is tremendous.

Cattle are tubercular and milk distribution is unsatisfactory. Eighty per cent of the children showed a positive reaction to tuberculin tests. Thirty per cent, or about 3,000,000 children, particularly the war orphans, are undernourished, rickety, undersized, or deformed.

Too large a percentage of the population is said to be tied to the farms. Too many women who should be employed in housework, looking after their families, are forced to do farm field work. Housing is still inadequate.

OVER-TAXED

The government is trying to operate collective farms side by side with privately-owned small farms. The privately-owned farms are over-taxed. The rate is based on a theoretical yield of rye at an assumed price. Part of the tax must be paid in grain. The lower the yield in bad crop years, the harder the farmer is hit. Many farmers were in arrears on the past year's taxes. Farm workers are not represented in the government.

All this and more is topped by a vicious double-wage scale and two-price system that has disrupted the economy. Government workers and employees of the government-owned, communized industries, are paid low wages. But they have ration cards which permit them to buy food at low prices in government stores. About 42 per cent of the people have these ration cards.

Everybody else must scramble for food at high prices in the free market.

The F.A.O. mission report of 150 pages is stuffed with more than that many black-type recommendations of what ought to be done to remedy these and other bad conditions. For instance:

Install a uniform rationing system with a single free-market price. Use more fertilizer to make up for the manure shortages resulting from reduction of livestock numbers. Grow more green and leafy vegetables and change the Polish diet to a higher protein content. Boil the milk until it can be pasteurized.

REFORM SYSTEM

Reform the land-holding and land-use system. Divorce agricultural schools from political control. Reform the tax system. Expand the salt-water fishing industry to the Baltic. Allot gardens to factory and office workers. Double the timber cut to build more houses. And so on. How much attention will be paid to these recommendations is unknown.

As Others See Us

SOCIETY IS COMPOSED, not of "average" people, but of people who are abnormal in one or more respects. So states Dr. Roger J. Williams in the Reader's Digest for July, praising the "deep-seated physiological differences that make each of us act, think and feel differently from everyone else."

Dr. Williams is director of the Biochemical Institute, University of Texas. The article is condensed from his book, "The Human Frontier."

WIDE DIFFERENCES

In such everyday sense-reactions as taste, smell and the stimulus of color, wide differences between individuals have been demonstrated. Marked variations in reaction to drugs are known to exist. Sleep requirements vary from "almost none" for some people to many hours daily for others.

Contending that such physical differences indicate a comparable range of variance in mental abilities, Dr. Williams says that humans cannot justly be classified as "dumb" or "intelligent." Each human mind is a mixture of perhaps 300 distinct mental abilities and traits, any one of which may be possessed in high or low degree.

Idiot-savants, who are very weak in certain mental resources, very strong in others, are "simply caricatures of you and me." The author cited the unusual mechanical ability of one man who, by ordinary intelligence tests, rated as a low-grade moron. Another "feeble-minded" individual was able to memorize the city telephone directory. Such an acknowledged genius as Albert Einstein was backward in arithmetic when in school and, as a child, unusually slow in learning to talk.

INDIVIDUALS

Educators have not sufficiently recognized these human variations, Dr. Williams believes. The importance of considering each child as an individual with widely different aptitudes has been obscured in the schools' mass-production methods of teaching.

Global Survey

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Associated Press News Analyst

EVENTS appear moving rapidly towards a formal division of Germany into two states—one comprising the Russian eastern zone and the other the western areas occupied by Britain, the United States and France.

Russia and six satellite countries have been staging a highly secret conference in Warsaw, and are authoritatively stated to be considering the creation of a separate state in eastern Germany. They also are said to be planning another assault on the Marshall Plan.

Should Moscow create a separate German state it would, of course, be added to the satellite states which Russia overran during and since the war.

DANGEROUS ASPECT
A most extraordinary and dangerous aspect of this situation is that the once proud capital city of Berlin lies in the heart of the Russian zone, although it is partitioned among the four Allies for purposes of military occupation. Thus not only would both eastern and western Germany be deprived of the capital, but the most important communications centre of all Europe would be divided against itself—a badly crippled giant.

Actually such a Russian move would make formal a situation which already exists in effect. The difference would be that hope of a united Germany would be killed, thereby dealing a heavy blow to general European economic rehabilitation.

The new Soviet project represents another offensive in her cold war against democracy. It would create a delicate situation, but would fall short of actual gunfire.

CLOCK-WATCHER

The Reader's Digest.
A New York teacher, annoyed with his clock-watching students, covered the clock with cardboard on which he lettered: "Time Will Pass. Will You?"

DREAM STUFF

Halifax Herald
But it would be nice to enjoy a nice juicy steak, covered with rivulets of melted butter, with creamed potatoes and cauliflower and baked potatoes. It would be nice to enjoy that without taking a second mortgage on the house.

DISTANCE DIMINISHED

Windsor Star
Distances diminish in direct proportion to the speed of travel. If the world is now small compared to the days of the sailing ship and the stage coach, think of how small it will be if supersonic airplanes become a common mode of transportation.

FIRST SIGNS

Toronto Star
The first sign of weakness in the business boom which has gripped the United States since the start of the war, has been detected in a survey conducted for the U.S. Federal Reserve System. In analysis of consumer finances, the survey predicts a continued high demand for consumer goods throughout 1948. But, it warns, "the general financial status of consumers showed the first signs of weakening in 1947."

STRATEGY DAMAGED

Toronto Saturday Night
One of the most important results of the Ontario election is the damage it has done to Mr. Drew's chances, which had been rapidly improving, of becoming national leader of the P.C.'s. He lost his own riding; while unimportant from the provincial point of view, this does some damage to his personal prestige. More important, the election which he called for no purpose than to consolidate his hold on the province was not nearly as successful from this point of view as it might have been; his reputation as a political strategist is damaged.

CONVENTION JOTTINGS

Winnipeg Free Press
A fifth columnist who attended the recent provincial convention of the Progressive Conservative Party has passed on an item of sinister intelligence concerning party affairs.

He reports that while a number of delegates were having coffee in a down-town restaurant on the last day of the convention, one of them got into conversation with a gentleman, not a member of the fold, who happened to be having coffee too.

The talk by merest chance swung to politics, and in due course the non-party gentleman asked: "What platform, if any, has the Progressive Conservative Party?"

A fair question, and the delegate, apparently a ruthless realist, had a ready answer. Said he: "Owing to the present high cost of lumber it hasn't any!"

Britain's National Assistance Act Requires Everyone To Pay Share

LONDON (CP) — Dowagers and tramps, suburbanites and sailors, all must pay their share when the National Assistance Act comes into force July 5.

An estimated 3,500,000 persons, self-employed or not engaged in gainful occupations, have escaped state insurance schemes so far.

But, under legislation approved with support of both Labor government and opposition parties for its main provisions, practically everyone in the United Kingdom over school age and under pension age must pay contributions to secure old age, sickness, unemployment and death benefits.

The employed man of more than 18 will pay 4s 11d (98 cents) weekly and his employer 4s 2d. The employed woman will pay 3s 10d and her employer 3s 3d.

NON-EMPLOYED PAY TOO

Self-employed men must pay 6s 2d and women 5s 1d. Non-employed men will pay 4s 8d and women 3s 8d.

"National insurance, with the help of family allowances, provides cover for a man's wife and family allowances, provides cover for a man's wife and family as well as for himself, out of the husband's contribution and in no circumstances therefore will a married woman be compelled to pay separate contributions for herself," said a government statement.

Employed and self-employed persons qualify for sickness benefit, but only employed persons can qualify for unemployment assistance. Payments will be 26s weekly, with 16s additional for a wife and 7s 6d for one child. All children after the first receive the 5s weekly family allowance.

Unemployment benefits normally will be paid for 180 working days, but may be continued for a year. Sickness benefit will continue as long as the illness lasts, provided 156 contributions have been paid.

A mother will receive a maternity grant of £4 on the birth of a child, plus an allowance of 36s weekly for 13 weeks if she normally goes out to work.

PAYMENTS TO WIDOWS

A widow will receive 26s weekly for 13 weeks after her husband's death, plus 7s 6d if she has a child of school age. After that time, she will receive a widowed mother's allowance of 33s 6d for herself and the child. A widower without children unable to support himself will receive 26s.

Injury benefit will be 45s weekly, plus 16s weekly for an adult dependent and 16s for the eldest child. It continues for a maximum of 26 weeks. Disability benefit is payable when injury benefit ends and will vary from 45s weekly for 100 per cent disability to 9s weekly for 20 per cent disability.

If accident or disease causes death, a benefit is payable to dependents and will vary according to the degree of relationship and the extent of maintenance during lifetime.

Fined For Driving While Suspended

Two motorists who drove cars while their licenses were under suspension pleaded guilty to these charges Wednesday in city police court and were fined $25 each. They were Aubrey Nobbs for this offence on June 17 and Thomas S. Harper apprehended by police June 5.

Installs New President

TORONTO (CP)—Dr. William Wagner of Toronto Wednesday night was installed as president of the Canadian Medical Association. He succeeded Dr. F. G. McGuinness of Winnipeg.

The installation took place during the annual general meeting of the C.M.A.'s 1948 convention.

Nine doctors were made senior members of the association, including Dr. W. J. Knox, Kelowna; Dr. Willis Merritt, Calgary; Dr. F. A. F. Corbett, Regina, and Dr. W. A. Gardner, Winnipeg.

$50,000 Yearly Urged For Canada's Premier

OTTAWA (CP)—The Senate heard suggestions Wednesday the Canadian Prime Minister should be paid $50,000 a year, that there should be a pension scheme for cabinet ministers and that Lieutenant-Governors should all have official residences and higher pay.

The outburst of ideas came as the chamber debated and approved a bill to raise the salary of the Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island from $7,000 to $8,000 a year.

The boost for the Prime Minister came from Senator Felix Quinn, P.C., Nova Scotia, who contended Canada treats her chief political figure "in the most niggardly way." He considered a $15,000 salary — the Prime Minister's total income is $23,000 — "mean and paltry." It should be at least $50,000. (Mr. King receives $15,000 as Prime Minister, $2,000 car allowance, $4,000 seasonal indemnity and $2,000 seasonal allowance.) The pension suggestion came from Senator Wishart Robertson, Liberal leader, who proposed a Senate study of it. He suggested any cabinet minister who has served at least five years might benefit.

Previews Given Of 2 New Films On British Columbia

B.C. Government Travel Bureau yesterday showed for the first time to officials of the trade and industry department and the press its two latest additions to its series of documentary movies on British Columbia. The latest films deal with the east and the west Kootenay districts.

Photographed in natural color with music background and commentaries recorded on the sound tracks the two reels are the eighth and ninth in the travel bureau's series. They will be distributed in the United Kingdom, the U.S. and throughout Canada. If other films of the series are an indication they may also be shown in South America and South Africa.

Other films of the series are in the making.

Like their forerunners which have depicted Vancouver Island, the Fraser Valley, the Cariboo district and other sections of the province, the films on the east and west Kootenays are designed to give general information about the scenic attractions of the districts, and the sports and recreational facilities available to tourists. The witness of the films also gets a few details on the industrial and agricultural development of the communities in the districts.

TOURING TRANS-CANADA HIGHWAY

The east Kootenay film, which takes the audience on a motor trip from Revelstoke along the Trans-Canada highway over the Big Bend of the Columbia and then south along the Banff-Windermere Highway to the U.S.-Canadian boundary, was photographed entirely by Clarence R. D. Ferris, chief of the motion picture division of the travel bureau.

Working with Mr. Ferris in the shooting of the film on the west Kootenay was Richard Colby, also of the division's staff. For this film the audience starts at Osoyoos at the southern end of the Okanagan Valley and travels eastward to Grand Forks, visits Rossland, Trail, Castlegar, winding up in Nelson.

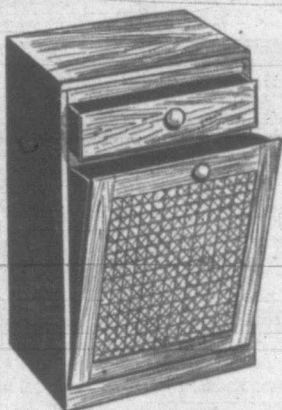

The script is the work of Eric Ramsden, former Kootenay and Victoria newspaper correspondent. The narrating voice is that of Lamont Tilden of the Associated Screen News. All editing of the film and copy was done here but the sound effects and narration were put in the east.

Yugoslavs Leaving Canada Under Guard; Income Tax Seized

MONTREAL (CP) — The Yugoslav cargo-passenger ship Radnik docked here Wednesday and federal authorities placed a heavy guard around her as she began loading the personal effects of 500 Yugoslav-Canadians returning to their homeland Friday.

An official at the customs collector's office said the reasons for the guard "should be obvious," but he did not elaborate.

One returning Slav, Martin Naglich of Val d'Or, will sail Friday, minus $1,700 of his worldly possessions.

The income tax department clipped that amount out of the $8,000 the northern Quebec butcher had in the bank. Provincial Police said it was for payment of back income tax.

They also seized two revolvers and the bullets which they found in his possession.

Customs inspectors at the docks said the first fruits of their work was seizure of several kegs of nails because the owners did not have permits to export them from Canada.

The dockside was cluttered with crated farm machinery and household goods, new cars and trucks with names such as "Dimoff, Toronto" and "Palmeroff, Toronto," crudely scrawled on windshields.

Leading Musician Passes Suddenly

LATE ALFRED PRESCOTT

One of the city's leading musicians and conductors, Alfred Prescott, passed away suddenly last night at the age of 61.

A resident for 36 years, Mr. Prescott was former director of music for Victoria schools, conductor of the Rotary Club Orchestra and bandmaster of the Victoria Youth Band. At one time he conducted the orchestras of the old Pantages and Orpheum Theatres.

Born in London, Eng., he was instrumental in the forming of the Victoria Philharmonic Orchestra.

In addition to his many other duties, Mr. Prescott was vice-president of Local 247 of the American Federation of Musicians. In the past he held every executive post in that organization. He was a member of the Rotary Club and served in the First World War as a regimental bandmaster. Funeral services will be conducted at 1.30 Saturday from Sands' Mortuary by Rev. J. L. W. McLean.

Russian Soldiers Amok In Vienna

VIENNA (CP) — A Russian soldier with three submachine-guns killed a French member of the Vienna international police-patrol, wounded Russian and American members, and forced a British lance corporal to drive him to American police headquarters, a British statement announced Wednesday.

An international patrol jeep carrying a four-power patrol Tuesday night found the Russian dressed in private's uniform but bareheaded and barefoot, with two tommy-guns slung on his back and one in his hands.

The man opened fire, the report said, fatally wounding the Frenchman, Meselin, wounding the American, Cpl. Robert Perryman, with splinters from the windscreen, and shooting the Russian member, Borisov, through the arm.

The Russian was held for Soviet authorities.

What Is It?

PORT ALBERNI (CP) — Here's a topper to that yarn the other day about a half-deer half-calf found on a farm near here. Bert Brown reports owning a bird which has web toes on one foot, cries like a seagull, and has a peculiar beak.

Oh yes... and it was found in a pigeon's nest.

Prices Committee Hammering Out Report To Beat Friday Deadline

OTTAWA (CP)—The Prices Committee today spent hours behind closed doors hammering out its report to Parliament.

The schedule called for completion of the report by tonight and its presentation to the Commons Friday.

As a basis for discussion, the committee used a lengthy draft report largely written by Vice-Chairman Ralph Maybank, Lib., Winnipeg South Centre. As chairman of a small drafting committee, Mr. Maybank took over a resume and analysis of the group's public hearings which have lasted since last Feb. 10. The material was prepared by two government economists under the direction of Health Minister Martin, chairman.

Government members had been expecting lively debate when the draft was placed before the full committee, with a strong fight by C.C.F. members to have included at least some of their ideas.

W. R. Thatcher, C.C.F., Moose Jaw, and William Irvine, C.C.F., Cariboo, would like to recommend subsidies on food, reimposition of the excess profits tax on a less severe scale than during the war and redrafting of the Combines Act "to give it teeth." They also have urged reimposition of price controls, but do not seriously expect the government majority in the committee to subscribe to the proposal.

Mr. Maybank's draft was known to contain, among other things, a recommendation that prices should be kept under "continuing scrutiny," a proposal which Liberal members earlier thought would lead to legislative action to increase the powers of either the Combines Investigation Commission or the Prices Board. Sources close to the government, however, now believe special legislation would be unnecessary.

Much of the report, by fairly general agreement, will review evidence. This portion is expected to mention some firms by name, but there is no indication it will make any spectacular charges.

Harold Curran was fined $20 yesterday in city police court by Magistrate H. C. Hall when found guilty of assaulting his wife on June 11. After the prosecution case had been heard, accused, who had pleaded not guilty, would not take the stand himself or call witnesses. Magistrate Hall said he had no alternative, under the circumstances, but to find the defendant guilty.

Railways Haul Other Stocks Up Toward May, Early-June Levels

By CANADIAN PRESS
Stock markets Wednesday shed some of their recent uncertainty, New York advancing under the leadership of rails and Canadian exchanges tending upward in small volume.

One New York broker had predicted a small increase in new buying might bring about a good recovery and this might develop if the railroads assumed constructive leadership.

The rails did that and it is possible the U.S. exchange will resume its May and early-June advance. Whether this is so, it has in the meantime shown good resistance to any downward tendencies, with trade slowing down when prices were off.

Regarding U.S. oil stocks, which have been notable performers, the Wall Street Journal
comments:

"It is getting obvious that speculation has become pretty active in some sections of the oil and that an 'emotional'
phase of buying is a factor...
It would appear that with advances of from 50 per cent to nearly 250 per cent in oil stock prices on the stock exchange in the last 12 months or so, oils have done some important discounting of their prosperity now and in the future."

Canadian markets were stronger Wednesday, but trading was quiet, Toronto having its lowest volume since last August. However, much of the Toronto volume drop is due to dull trading in low-priced goods.
The exchange's index showed industrials up nearly 1½ points, while base metals gained about a half-point. Late trade wiped out earlier western oil gains.

200 Navy Members Still In Flood Area

Of the 700 permanent and reserve force members of the navy who took part in the battle against the Fraser River flood,
200 still remain in the area, Royal Canadian Navy officials reported today.

A large number of the navy craft which took part in Operation Overflow are now back at their bases, but still in the area are the Algerine class mine-sweeper Rockcliffe and a number of small power craft.

It is understood a naval force will be kept in the area until such time as the river level at Mission Bridge is down to 18 feet, two feet blow the danger level.

Seed Production Gains In Canada

VANCOUVER (CP) — Seed production is increasing in importance in the Canadian economy, members of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association said
Wednesday.

W. T. G. Wiener, association secretary, reported 201,658 acres of seed crop in 1947, against 133,992 in 1946, an increase of 50.5 per cent. The association is meeting in convention here.

Vegetable and tobacco seed production rose 17 per cent in the same period from 266,636 pounds to 311,981.

With increased demand for registered seed, and rising prices, the number of registered seed growers rose 36 per cent in one year, from 1946's 3,512 to 4,786, he said.

2 Planes Crash Over Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Two U.S.
navy planes, flying in a seven-ship formation, crashed and burned Wednesday after colliding over the heavily-populated east side area of Detroit.

The flaming wreckage set fire to four houses and a tool shop, but scores of residents fled to safety.

The two pilots of the single-seater planes died in the crash, and one tool shop employer was slightly injured when struck by flaming debris.

The falling planes narrowly missed the Norval elementary school, where pupils had been dismissed several minutes earlier.
Officers at the Grosse Ile station said the pilots involved were naval reservists on two weeks'

Three Major Summer Fetes Realize $778 For Activities

The bright sunshine of a perfect June afternoon made it possible for a record number of Victorians and out-of-town visitors to attend one or more of the garden fetes held yesterday afternoon.

At one of the largest events a combined sum of approximately $778 was realized.

In the well-kept grounds of Victoria Nursing Home, Gorge Road, members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Welfare Association and the Pas-a-Pas Club of First United Church sponsored a garden party from 2.30 until 5, where $400 was received.

Alderman Margaret Christie welcomed guests and introduced Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A., who officially declared the affair open.

Afternoon tea was served on the upper terrace; stalls were placed at various spots about the grounds and, on the lower lawn, Mrs. Adeline Duncan presented a program of Scottish and other dances.

A stall of over 60 knitted articles made by 32 women guests at the nursing home, was in charge of Mrs. M. Thornborow and Mrs. E. Griffin.

AT ESQUIMALT

The hall was gay with a profusion of summer flowers. Afternoon tea was served from a table at which presided Mrs. Harold E. Wilson and Mrs. James Dunkeld, presidents of Britannia and Pro Patria Ladies' Auxiliary. Mrs. R. Watson was general convener. Others on the general committee were Mesdames L. Howe, W. Lloyd, A. G. Hobbs, H. Chamberlain, J. L. Lake, N. Shuk and Miss E. Hobbs.

A sum of approximately $78 was realized.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE

On the green lawns, under spreading oak trees, in the Foul Bay Road garden of Mrs. W. P. D. Pemberton, combined nursing divisions of St. John Ambulance sponsored their annual garden party, with $300 received during the afternoon.

Introduced by Mrs. E. J. Harwood, lady corps superintendent, Mrs. H. R. Beaven officiated at opening ceremonies.

Afternoon tea, served at individual tables on the lawn, was convoked by Mrs. N. A. Hutton, assisted by Mrs. M. Sampson and members of the senior and junior cadets.

Stalls of home cooking, flowers and plants, superfluties, toys, miscellaneous articles and games and contests, all well patronized were in charge of Mesdames W. W. Bell, M. Thompson, K. Elston, D. H. Derek Mason and David Horwood were in charge at the gate.

Celebrate First Anniversary

One tiny candle stood in the centre of a large anniversary cake at a garden party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Newport Avenue, to commemorate the first birthday of Brides of Albion Chapter, I.O.D.E., who sponsored the fete.

The cake was cut by Mrs. Sampson, who presided at the tea with Mrs. J. L. Ford and Mrs. C. L. Bishop, regent and first vice-regent of Municipal Chapter, and Mrs. F. E. Dowdall, honorary regent of Brides of Albion Chapter.

Deputizing at opening ceremonies for Mrs. W. A. Martin of Vancouver, who was to have opened the fete, but was unable to attend until later in the afternoon, was Mrs. Walter Nichol, second vice-regent of Provincial Chapter.

Mrs. N. E. Tanner, as regent of Brides of Albion and general convener, welcomed guests, among whom was Mrs. R. J.

Spratt of Vancouver, organizing secretary of Provincial Chapter. Pupils of Florence Clough Dance Academy entertained during the afternoon with dances on the spacious lawns of Mrs. Sampson's garden.

With the permission of Commodore J. C. I. Edwards, the naval band of H.M.C.S. Naden was in attendance at the fete.

Against the colorful setting of summer flowers were two stalls of home-cooking and of knitted wear and needlework. In charge of the former were Mrs. P.

Causey and Mrs. A. Hodgkinson, while Mrs. E. Edwards and Mrs. D. Miller were co-conveners of the latter.

Among other attractions during the afternoon were bingo games, conducted by Mrs. S. McLaughlin and Mrs. A. Pringle. Serving tea to the large number of guests were Mrs. B. Shaw, Mrs. M. Elliott and Mrs. B. Robinson.

Mrs. B. Rigler was in charge of door receipts, and it was reported that a sum of $104 was made at the fete.

U.S. Admiral To Visit In Cruiser

U.S.S. DULUTH

Rear-Admiral Francis X. McInerney, U.S.N., commander cruiser division 13, will arrive at Esquimalt naval base next Wednesday aboard U.S.S. Duluth, Royal Canadian Navy officials announced today.

The Duluth, a cruiser of the Vincennes class, under the command of Capt. Burton Davis, U.S.N., will fire a 21-gun salute on her arrival off Esquimalt Harbor. The salute will be returned by the Royal Canadian Artillery from the battery at Macaulay Point.

The Duluth, which will remain in Esquimalt Harbor until July 6, will be the first U.S. cruiser to visit the Esquimalt naval base since the end of World War II.

On her visit she will carry a complement of 50 officers, 765 men and 40 marines and a contingent of 317 university men serving in the U.S. Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps as midshipmen.

Included in the university contingent are representatives of every American college, with the exception of Holy Cross University. The R.O.T.C. members are under the command of Capt. Burnett K. Culver, U.S.N., professor of naval science and tactics.

Admiral McInerney is a graduate of the University of Colorado, the U.S. Naval Academy and George Washington Law School. For his wartime services he was awarded the Navy Cross, the Silver Star, the Bronze Star, Commendation Ribbon and a Presidential Citation. He commanded the battleship Washington and served on the staff of Admiral Halsey in the Pacific theatre.

School Enrollment To Go Up; More Space Will Be Provided

Steps are being taken by the Greater Victoria School Board to have additional classroom space provided at seven elementary schools in this area, J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools, has announced.

Enrollment in the elementary schools is increasing every year and additional facilities must be provided if all children are to be properly accommodated when schools open again in September.

"Primary grade enrollment will be up by a considerable degree over last year," Mr. English said. "But the increase will not be confined to primary grades alone. All other grades in the elementary schools will likewise show an increase in size."

Enrollment at Central Junior High School will be about the same as last year, it is expected. In fact, some Grade Seven pupils from other schools may be transferred here to relieve the situation in the elementary schools.

High school attendance next year will be virtually the same as last year, Mr. English said.

"Elementary school education is compulsory and ways and means for making satisfactory provision for the same must be found," Mr. English said.

COSTS TOO HIGH
"Only temporary arrangements will be provided, however. The board is unable to proceed with its planned building program because costs have risen to such a high point." The $3,913,825, which was voted by ratepayers of the area last year for the construction of new schools, would not nearly be enough to do the job today, he said.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Schools requiring additional accommodation and Mr. English's recommendations are as follows:

Willows—One additional room and equipment for same. Some type of annex should be provided.

Gordon Head Camp—One additional room. Accommodation is already available. Additional equipment to be provided.

Oaklands—One additional room and equipment for same. Some type of annex should be provided as well as additional equipment.

Cedar Hill—One additional room. Accommodation is already available. Additional equipment to be provided.

Tillicum—One additional division will be necessary. The auditorium should be made into three classrooms with partitions to the ceiling. Additional equipment will be required. These rooms should be heated by radiators as the present overhead heating devices are quite unsatisfactory for classroom use.

Cloverdale-Quadra—One additional division will have to be organized at either one of these centres. Details in this connection are still to be worked out.

Craigflower—Due to extra enrollment at this centre either transportation must be provided drawing off pupils to either Lampson Street or Victoria West, or, an extra room must be provided.

MAY CHANGE BOUNDARIES

School boundaries might be changed again this year, Mr. English said.

While hesitating to take a pupil from one school and put him in another, the board may have to do so if the added enrollment at some schools is too great.

"Scores of classes have from 42 to 47 pupils," Mr. English said. "The proper size is about 35."

"A few changes may tend to relieve the situation in all schools. If so, the changes will be made."

50% MORE Jam or Jelly
WITHOUT RISK OF FAILURES
if you use CERTO

It's simply wonderful... the difference in jam and jelly-making when you use Certo. You get jams and jellies that look better, taste better, are better... and much more of them. That's because Certo is "fruit pectin"—the natural substance in fruit that makes jams "jam" and jellies "jell"—extracted and refined ready for your use.

THE CERTO BOIL IS SO SHORT

With Certo you boil only one-to-two minutes for jams—a half-minute-to-a-minute for jellies. NO prolonged, tedious boiling to make sure your jam or jelly will set. Certo makes all fruits set "just right". This extremely Certo short boil means:

- 1 You get 50% more jam or jelly because practically none of your precious fruit juice is boiled away.
- 2 The time you spend is cut down to a fraction.
- 3 The natural colour and taste of the fresh fruit are retained. The Certo boil is too short to dull the one or spoil the other.

If you are only a beginner, don't worry. You'll have no failures if you follow exactly the recipes provided with Certo. Since different fruits need different handling, there's a separate, kitchen-tested recipe for each one.

Indians Of B.C. In Deplorable State, Says Member For Nanaimo

OTTAWA (CP) — Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., P.C., Nanaimo, said in the House of Commons Wednesday night the homes of Indians in British Columbia were in deplorable condition and urged that the government divert some of the money being spent on national parks.

He said the conditions of the homes of Indians living at the city of Nanaimo were "appalling." They had no heat, electricity or sewage. The roads were in bad condition, full of "potholes."

Speaking on estimates of the Indian affairs branch of the Resources Department, Gen. Pearkes said he had protested to the branch and the Indians had received $100 with which to fill a few of the holes in the roads. That was all the department had done.

He said he did not intend to let the appropriations pass until the minister had given assurance the situation would be investigated and remedial action taken.

G. H. Castleden, C.C.F., Yorkton, Sask., said Canadians had failed in their responsibility towards Indians.

Poverty, want, disease and ignorance now were to be found on many reserves, he said. There were exceptions on some reserves where the Indians were doing rather well.

It was shocking, he said, that 12,000 Indian children now were receiving no education.

UPHOLDS REPORT

He urged adoption of the report tabled recently by the parliamentary committee which made a three-year study of Indian problems. The committee recommended the virtual scrapping of the 60-year-old Indian Act.

Rodney Young, C.C.F., Vancouver Centre, said the Resources Department should assist Vancouver in curbing crimes resulting from the visits of North Vancouver Indian girls to the city.

He said the girls go along a water front street and are "debauched" and "taken into hotel rooms," where some have been found with liquor on their possession. Some were being prosecuted practically every day for this type of crime.

John Blackmore, S.C., Lethbridge, Alta., said the Indians should be given the blind and old age pensions and should receive them at an earlier age than the whites because they found it harder to earn a living.

'Pot And Kettle' Leaders

Associated Pot and Kettle Clubs of America at their annual banquet here Wednesday evening installed these new officers. From left to right: Fred C. Woods, San Francisco, vice-president; Lester Neblett, Los Angeles, president, and A. H. Howson, Los Angeles, treasurer. Not shown is B. J. Badham Jr., Los Angeles, who was installed as secretary.

The 1948-49 officers of the Associated Pot and Kettle Clubs of America, holding their convention at the Empress Hotel, were installed at the annual banquet last night.

New officers elected are: Lester Neblett, Los Angeles, president; Fred C. Woods, San Francisco, vice-president; A. H. Howson, Los Angeles, treasurer, and Jack Badham Jr., Los Angeles, secretary.

New board of directors includes Walter Stone, San Francisco; Harry Mayer, Denver; T. M. Moroney, Los Angeles; Jim Stewart, Portland; Fred Stokes, Spokane, and Wallace Spaulding, Seattle.

The 162 members attending were to have held their convention at Harrison Hot Springs, but the Fraser Valley flood caused a switch to Victoria.

The association is a social organization of Americans engaged in the manufacture, sale, wholesale or retail of houseware and glass.

The movement was born in southern California in 1923, where a small group of department store house furnishing buyers began meeting for informal luncheons every week.

By January, 1924, the first Pot and Kettle Club was formed. This year, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Spokane, Portland, Denver and Seattle are represented at the convention, and an application for membership from Salt Lake City, Utah, has been accepted.

First foundations were laid in June of 1947.

The remainder of the homes are nearing completion and are expected to be completed by the end of August.

The property will be landscaped and the project, as part of the municipality of Lake Cowichan, will have roads graded by the municipality.

Mennonites Face Many Hardships

WINNIPEG (CP) — Mennonites from the Niverville, Man., and Herbert, Sask., districts, emigrating to Paraguay, will have to make their homes in tents on land which has yet to be cleared.

Predictions of a struggle for existence were made here by Peter G. Funk, Grunthal, Man., who passed through Winnipeg Wednesday with more than 300 Mennonites en route to the Paraguayan colony.

Mr. Funk, twice a visitor to the South American colony, was a member of the delegation which selected and bought the 100,000-acre parcel of land in 1946.

He said: "The land will not be easy to cultivate, but the task is possible."

There are at present no living quarters in the colony, and tents brought along by the emigrants will provide shelter at the outset.

Fifteen years ago in the movies: "Gold Diggers of 1933" was a hit at Grauman's Chinese. Darryl Zanuck left Warners, set up 20th Century and had "The Bowery" (Wally Beery, Jackie Cooper) shooting within 30 days.

1-Year Sentence Given At Nanaimo

NANAIMO (CP) — An ex-coal miner who set fire to his house as part of his preparation to enter hospital was sentenced Wednesday to one year in jail.

He said he was dying.

Royal Commission Hears Attack On Juvenile Act

EDMONTON (CP)—An attack on Alberta's Juvenile Offenders Act, which permits the provincial child welfare superintendent to keep delinquent boys in the Edmonton South Side detention home for months at a time, was made Wednesday before the Royal Commission investigating child welfare conditions in the province.

George Steer of Edmonton, counsel for the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, said he would argue that the clause to this effect in the act was ultra vires and contrary to the federal Juvenile Delinquents Act.

Chief Justice William Howson, commission chairman, said it was his view the commission could deal only with the conformity or not of the child welfare department policies with provincial legislation. He did not think the commission had been asked to tell the government what the legislation should be.

The chief justice said sittings of the commission probably would be concluded in the next few days. Anyone who wished to come before the commission should do so at once.

Mr. Steer said he differed with the chairman's interpretation of the order-in-council which called the commission, but would argue the point later.

The question came up while Mr. Steer was questioning Charles B. Hill, provincial child welfare superintendent, late in the session.

KEPT FOR MONTHS

Mr. Hill admitted some boys might be kept in the detention homes for months. Mr. Steer wondered how this could be done legally because the Federal Juvenile Act said the court could commit boys to a detention home to wait disposition by the superintendent. Thus they could be kept there indefinitely, at pleasure of the superintendent, Mr. Steer said.

"I think I needn't say any more, Mr. Hill, about this centralized set-up of yours," Mr. Steer said. "The legislation established enormous powers in the hands of the welfare commission."

Hongkong Prisoners Still Suffering From Malnutrition

TORONTO (CP)—Many Canadians, former war prisoners of the Japanese, still suffer from what is believed to be effects of malnutrition, Dr. Eustache Morin of Quebec said here.

At the Canadian Medical Association's 79th annual meeting Wednesday, he reviewed the condition of 50 Quebec Hongkong survivors, 2½ years after their liberation. Former members of the Royal Rifles of Quebec, most of them came from the Gaspé or lower St. Lawrence regions.

Medical consultant to the Department of Veterans' Affairs, Dr. Morin said each of the 1,400 Far East war veterans in Canada was "pensioned well." But some of the 50 Quebec men were incapacitated by extreme fatigue and weakness, thought due to malnutrition.

"These men need higher pensions, but to get them increased we cannot explain to the pension board that 'they are tired,'" said Dr. Morin. "Now we are trying to find a physical basis for their trouble."

Dr. H. J. Richardson of Ottawa said: "A higher per cent of Quebec men are receiving pensions than others in Canada and the pensions of Quebec men are higher than the national average."

Dr. Morin said most veterans felt as able to carry on as they did before their several years' stay in prison camps.

Bishop Will Expell Beauty Contestants

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Bishop John J. Swint announced Wednesday he will excommunicate any Catholic girl of the Wheeling Diocese who takes part in a beauty contest.

He called modern beauty pageants "totally pagan" and "absolutely immoral."

The bishop made his statement in confirming reports he had told a Catholic girl to withdraw from a contest here or be expelled from the church. He protested what he called the "indecent exposure" of girls' bodies before the public.

Charge against Jack Kane of taking a car without the owner's consent was withdrawn by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court yesterday. C. L. Harrison asked for the withdrawal when he reported investigations by chief of detectives Insp. Harry Mercer have revealed although Kane was in the car he was not the party who took it.

A client of this advertising agency is seeking a man who has had a personally successful selling record and is now interested in heading his own sales organization. He should be young enough to be enthusiastic, but old enough to appreciate the obligations of the semi-professional business he would head. Appliance or hearing-aid experience would be an advantage, but successful sales experience in other fields, nominal capital and an ability to engage and inspire a sales and dealer organization would merit an interview in Victoria. ## Balson, Lyon Win Track Laurels At Royal Roads

Drake Division led by Cadet Lyon captured first place in the sixth annual R.C.N.-R.C.A.F. College track and field meet held at H.M.C.S. Royal Roads Wednesday afternoon. Five college records were broken and one equalled by the cadet athletes during a hotly contested inter-divisional struggle in which Hawkins Division nosed out Rodney for second place honors.

Individual laurels were divided by Cadet Craig Balson and Lyon, who led the point-scoring race. Balson equalled the record in winning the 100-yard dash in 10.4 seconds and then took first place in the 220-yard dash. Lyon won the broad jump with a record leap of 20 ft. 7 1/2 inches besides winning the high jump.

Three records were broken in the field events. Cadet Hart Price bettered his own mark in hurling the javelin 143 feet. Cadet Carl Longmuir spun the discus 107 feet 2 1/2 inches for a new record and Cadet Frank Trebell leaped 38 feet 7 1/2 inches to better the old mark.

NEW HURDLES MARK

The only track record broken was accomplished by Cadet Hugh Plant who sped home in the record-breaking time of 17.2 seconds in the 120-yard hurdles.

The final event of the program was an invitation 440-yard relay in which the winning cadet team from Drake Division won a narrow victory over a team of staff officers from Royal Roads with third place going to the ex-cadet quartet from H.M.C.S. Ontario.

On completion of the meet presentation of inter-divisional sports trophies won over the past year were made by Maj.-Gen. H. F. Hertzberg, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., MC, who spoke briefly to the assembled cadets, officers and their guests.

'All-Up' Service Starting July 1 Will Greatly Speed Business Mail

The "All-Up" air mail letter service to be inaugurated July 1 by the Canadian Post Office Department will be a boon to Victoria businessmen, who may save a week to 10 days on communications and replies to Eastern Canada, officials of the Victoria Post Office said today, in announcing flight times.

There will be five flights a day with the first two mails closing at the post office at 7 and 9.45 in the morning. Biggest mail despatch to anywhere in Canada will be that which closes at 5 in the evening.

"We are advising businessmen to have their mail at the post office by 4 o'clock however to insure despatch," the official said. "Those letters will be delivered as far east as Montreal the next morning."

Canada is pioneering in this new service to send all first class mail posted in Canada for delivery in other parts of the Dominion by air. Letters may not weigh more than an ounce or must be prepaid at the usual air mail rates.

An inaugural flight will arrive in Victoria from Halifax July 1. The plane is expected to carry post office officials from Ottawa and will be met by Postmaster John B. Sinclair and others of the Victoria Post Office.

Street letter box schedules will be changed, but since the "All-Up" service is a trial at first, date of change is not known.

HEAVIEST MAIL

Heaviest receipt of mail under the new schedule will be at 12.20 in the afternoon. A letter mailed in Victoria at 5 Monday evening will arrive in Montreal Tuesday morning. A reply can be on its return Tuesday afternoon and be delivered in Victoria Wednesday morning.

Letters sent after July 1 should not be endorsed air mail unless prepaid at air mail rates.

While the new "All-up" service is being made available to the public by the post office in conjunction with Trans-Canada Air Lines, the fact that a patron may be located in a centre not directly served by T.C.A. does not mean he will not benefit, according to postal officials.

"All mail qualifying for 'All-Up' treatment will be given air lift from the T.C.A. air centre nearest the point of origin."

Mail for the United States or Great Britain or any foreign country cannot be transmitted by the All-Up service. It cannot be sent by air and then by boat, postal authorities say. If it is to go airmail, it must go all the way airmail and be prepaid as airmail.

Children's Ward Fund Still Open; Need $28,000 More

The new children's ward of Royal Jubilee Hospital, construction of which started this week, will afford 50 per cent more accommodation than the present ward and will relieve the overcrowding, Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson, medical superintendent of the hospital, said today, in announcing continuance of the campaign launched some time ago to raise $40,000 for the project.

To date only $12,000 has been raised with $28,000 more needed, Dr. Anderson said, as he urged all interested in the hospital to participate in the campaign.

The Strathcona Wing is being converted to a children's ward and work began immediately following Dr. Anderson's recommendation to the new board.

"We are going right ahead in the hope that the money will be available as the work is completed," he said. "We need money badly and will welcome any donations."

Registration For City Kindergarten Centres High

Mothers hoping to send four-and-one-half-year-old junior off to kindergarten in September may have some difficulty.

There is room for only 480 youngsters at the eight kindergarten centres in the Greater Victoria area and already some 565 applications for registry have been received by the school board, reports J. F. K. English, municipal inspector.

It is not likely, either, that any new centres will be started this year. The board has its hands full in finding enough room for elementary classes.

As a solution to the situation it will be necessary to give preference to the older children who normally would be eligible the following year to attend the Grade 1 class at the elementary school which serves their district, Mr. English says.

This means children who are five at the present time will have the best chance of finding their way into kindergarten classes, although all children who will be five by next December are eligible.

Registration at the various centres, which each accommodate 60, is as follows:

Oaklands, 113; Spring Ridge, 102; Sir James Douglas, 66; Oak Bay, 64; North Ward, 57; Margaret Jenkins, 57; Kingston Street, 35, and Victoria West 51.

Flood Fund Here Now At $141,580

Greater Victoria's drive to assist the B.C. Flood Emergency Relief Fund was at the $141,580 mark today after subscriptions Wednesday netted $2,290.

Banks collected $1,446 and $844 was subscribed through the local office of the Royal Trust Company.

Provincial total now stands somewhere around $1,829,410.

Houses In Federal Project Here $4,500

City building totals this month will be boosted by 50 permits, which the building inspector started issuing today, for Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation single-family dwellings and duplexes under construction in the Hillside, Haultain and Jubilee Hospital districts.

Permits already issued call for $4,000 and $4,500 houses. They are being erected on Doncaster Drive, Albert Avenue, Bouchier Street, Poul Bay Road, Leighton Road, Forbes Street and Victor Street.

First houses of the project are expected to be completed in August. The houses have two and three bedrooms, some have basements.

It is understood there is a waiting list of 2,000 veterans with families for the dwellings.

The building department issued a permit today for a $6,500 service station to be constructed at 856 Broughton Street. Owner is C. N. Montague, 1531 Despard Avenue.

Egg Prices Increase

Following a similar increase Wednesday in Vancouver, egg prices jumped three cents a dozen in Victoria today, William Hagger, Dominion government poultry products inspector, announced.

Housewives will now pay about 53 cents a dozen for grade A large. Wholesalers will be selling them to retailers at 48 cents a dozen and producers will be getting 42.

Storekeeper Fined

Walter W. Campbell, 1202 Gladstone Avenue, was found guilty of keeping his shop open to customers on Wednesday afternoon on June 16, and was fined $15 in city police court this morning. Constable L. Kamann told of buying a bottle of tomato sauce in the store after 1. Constable A. Newsome also testified. Accused was the only one of four who pleaded not guilty last week.

Victoria and District Zone Council will hold a meeting tonight at 8 at the Naval Veterans' Branch of the Canadian Legion.

The two rings worth approximately $1,000, which Mrs. S. Penketh, Suite 2, 607 Yates Street, reported missing on June 2, have been recovered, Detectives L. Callan and A. Munro of the city police, reported today.

Joyce Ayres, 709 Fairfield Rd., suffered an injured right leg and right wrist yesterday afternoon in a fall down the main stairway at the B.C. Telephone Co. building. She was taken to Jubilee Hospital and treated by Dr. T. W. A. Gray.

Rapid Growth Of Health Society Noted As Three Credit Union Groups Convene

Delegates to the three-day joint League and the Credit Union and Co-operative Health Services Society registered during the last-minute bustle prior to the official opening at the Empress Hotel this morning.

Suspension of certain health societies in the province by the Attorney-General have not been detrimental to the Credit Union Co-operative Health Services Society of B.C., but "entirely the opposite," members were told by J. R. Hunter, president, of Vancouver, this morning as the group opened its annual convention at the Empress Hotel.

Health Services Society is holding the convention jointly with the B.C. Credit Union League and the B.C. Central Credit Union today, Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Hunter noted that since the suspensions, there has been a decided increase in the average daily applications for membership in the society. He noted that the growth of the two-year-old organization was further enhanced recently by the addition of the Malaspina Hospitalization Society, composed of persons in the Powell River area.

Another major point brought out in the president's message was a report on the progress of the C.U. and C. Insurance Company, which is currently being organized by the society with a view to having it eventually replace the present group.

The first shareholders' meeting has been held, directors have been named, officers elected and by-laws approved, the president stated.

Optimists' Carnival To Be Open Tonight

Doors of the Bay Street Armories will be thrown open tonight at 6.30 on the Optimist Club's carnival.

An official opening ceremony will be held later in the evening at 8.30. Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A., will proclaim the affair open and Harry Rennie, Optimist Club president, will speak briefly.

The Navy band from H.M.C.S. Naden will be in attendance and will play during the opening ceremony. Charlie Hunt's orchestra will provide music for dancing.

Games of all kinds, clowns, magicians, fortune tellers and picture shows will be included among entertainment features.

Refreshment stalls will sell pop, ice cream, candy, hot dogs, hamburgers and coffee.

A variety of useful articles will be sold at the numerous stalls. Proceeds of the carnival will go toward the extension of Optimist Boys' Clubs. One such club now operates in the Victoria West district but more are planned.

The carnival will continue Friday from 6.30 to midnight and on Saturday from 2.30 to 11. Advertised door prizes, including a new car, will be distributed Saturday night.

A picnic of the Sixty-Up Club was held in Beacon Hill Park yesterday, when 55 members spent an enjoyable afternoon. In a bean guessing contest, the ladies' prize was won by Mrs. M. Upward, and the men's by J. T. Raines. Throwing the baseball into a basket provided much mirth, and Mrs. R. Couch proved to be the winning lady and J. Redfern scored for the men. The one-man band of F. Lavery added to the enjoyment of the affair and helped in the community singing.

Leonard W. Preece, who yesterday pleaded guilty to obtaining goods from Norris Leather Goods Ltd. by means of a worthless cheque, was sentenced to three months in jail by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today.

Dealing with the proposed provincial government hospitalization plan, Mr. Hunter said that as yet the executive is unable to determine the effect the plan will have on the C.U. and C., but if and when it does come into effect, every co-operation will be given. One suggestion which has been put forth is that the society could continue giving medical care only.

A. G. Butcher of Vancouver, noted in his manager's report that during the past year, there has been an increase in claims expenditures of 638 per cent, while gross income has increased only 109 per cent and net income 222 per cent.

Mr. Butcher cited as reasons for the increases the fact that these people are now more familiar with the details of benefits available, partly because of the prominence health societies have held in the public eye recently.

Ultimate aim of the chequing function is its extension throughout B.C. and finally, institution of the Secondary Service under which individual members of credit unions will be enabled to write cheques on their personal accounts.

Beef Sales Drop Brings Price Down 5 Cents A Pound Today

Retail beef prices in Victoria dropped 5 cents a pound today with some retail meat dealers predicting further decreases providing the government does not lift the embargo on export of cattle to the United States.

Drop in beef sales since prices jumped 20 cents on the pound in a matter of three weeks to a month, and quantity of cattle at Toronto stockyards with no buyers, were given as reasons for the decline in price by several meat dealers.

"I think prices will get back to the level they were a month ago, if the embargo is not lifted," one dealer said. "If the embargo is lifted, however, prices would go up again."

Sirloin steak, which was offered for 85 cents a pound Wednesday is priced at 80 today; sirloin which was 75 and 80 is now 70 and 75. T-bone steaks have also dropped.

"The packers are loaded with meat and consequently are dropping their prices; we are passing the drop on to the consumer," said another retailer. "Every cut of beef in the store went down 5 cents on the pound today."

Welcomed Back From Trip To Europe

WALTER FLETCHER

The staff of Fletcher's, well-known Victoria music store, gathered Monday evening at a dinner to welcome back the head of the firm, Walter Fletcher, who has just returned from an extended visit to the British Isles. In a short talk after dinner Mr. Fletcher described his visit, which he took as a member of the B.C. Trade Delegation, sanctioned by the provincial government. In his estimation the whole mission was a pronounced success, the delegates not only having done much to consolidate the position of B.C. in the minds of British business houses, but through the placing of large orders for their individual firms they have gone far toward leveling the present adverse balance of trade between the province and Great Britain. Mr. Fletcher expressed himself most impressed with the British Industry Fairs that he attended at Earl's Court and again in Birmingham. The steady progress of manufacturing houses in the U.K. in the face of adverse conditions is little short of miraculous, he said. On his return journey Mr. Fletcher stopped at New York and visited the Heintzman factories, at Montreal to call on the RCA-Victor works and again in Toronto to visit the General Electric plant. Speaking to his staff, some 20 of whom were present, he expressed his appreciation of the loyalty and co-operation shown in his absence and announced that a substantial bonus would be distributed as a practical form of thanks.

Wife Of Long-Time City Official Dies

Mrs. Henrietta Smith, 76, of 1169 Yates Street, wife of a former city treasurer-collector, died Wednesday in hospital in her 77th year.

Her husband, E. C. Smith, held the treasurer-collector's post at City Hall from 1911 to 1934. Mr. Smith survives, also a daughter, Mrs. R. Austin of Edmonton, and a sister, Mrs. A. E. Reeve of Seattle.

Mrs. Smith was born in Lansing, Mich. She was a member of Queen City Chapter 5, Order of Eastern Star, Order of the Amaranth and Island Temple, Pythian Sisters.

Funeral will take place Saturday from the Thomson Funeral Home. Interment will be at Ross Bay.

Had A Few Too Many

In city police court today there was a trial of sorts when one of Oakalla Prison Farm's most frequent "guests" registered a not guilty plea.

He might just as well have pleaded guilty from the start and been done with it, according to the way things went. When it came time for "Old Bill" to take the witness box to tell his story he was at a loss what to say.

"I can't give any evidence because I don't remember a thing," he told Magistrate H. C. Hall.

There was not much doubt about "Old Bill" being considerably intoxicated by the time the constable had finished giving his testimony.

He had found accused on a street corner, managing to keep himself upright by wrapping his arms around a lamp post. In one of the defendant's pockets was a bottle which had been emptied of its cheap wine contents.

In another pocket was a half-filled bottle of lemon extract.

Both were practical talks to assist the volunteer and paid playground supervisors map out programs for children of Greater Victoria who will attend playgrounds of the district during the summer months.

Mr. Hurn stressed that playground dramatics must be educational as well as recreational. He said all children act naturally without need of an audience, and instructors had no problem there. There is a need for voice improvement and training among children which playground dramatics will give, the drama director said. He suggested the use of charades, pageants, dramatized songs and pantomimes to avoid excessive word-learning.

Dr. Carl instructed on nature games. He said children are more interested in things which appeal to the eye rather than the ear. Nature studies, therefore, would be profitable in playground activities.

He demonstrated how to make blue prints of leaves, ferns and other natural growth, games which, he said, appealed particularly to young folk.

Juvenile Officer Arthur Rudge has a professional baseball glove which was found on a recovered bicycle which had been stolen. Glove is worth about $20. It does not belong to the owner of the bicycle nor to the Victoria Athletics. Anyone who can prove the glove is his should see Mr. Rudge.

A thief is said to have opened a window at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sage, 1743 Coronation Avenue, last night and grabbed a purse containing $15 from the bedroom table. The purse, minus money, was recovered at the corner of Ida Street and Coronation, city police reported.

JIM WEST SAYS

...ABOUT THE RED FRONT

Other day an American labor leader told his union members:

"In this country a Communist is a fellow who keeps his heart and mind in Moscow and his skin and stomach in the U.S.A."

Weird how Communism sucks in some intellectuals; I should think an "intellectual" was a person who did a lot of independent thinking; but amongst the Commies you think what they tell you to think and if you get out of line, they crack down on you. If you're not allowed to think for yourself, how can you be an "intellectual"?

Strange, too, how some workmen figure Communism can help them when Russian Communism puts between 12,000,000 and 20,000,000 people into slave labor camps—biggest work army of slaves in all history. And no denial of the fact comes from Moscow.

Doesn't seem to make sense that some Communists Uncle Sam won't let cross into his country, claiming they're agents of Russia and against democracy, are running big unions in this country.

But most puzzling of all to me is how some people figure Socialism is very different from Communism when both were started by Karl Marx, both want the State to own the means of production and run the people who produce things; because Russia put it into practice and there you can see how Socialism works when you try it full scale.

Many Opposition Amendments To Tax Act Rejected By Abbott

OTTAWA (CP)—Powers sought by the government to deal with income tax delinquents and evaders were attacked in the Commons Wednesday by opposition speakers.

The members, studying the 131-clause bill that will replace the present Income War Tax Act, concentrated most criticism on sections dealing with interest penalties on income tax arrears and with possible tax evasions.

At present, the penalty is 4 per cent on arrears unpaid prior to receipt of an income tax assessment from the revenue department. The penalty increases to 7 per cent on arrears unpaid after assessment.

AMENDMENT OUT OF ORDER
E. D. Fulton, P.C., Kamloops, sought to have these rates maintained rather than the proposed new rates of 6 and 7 per cent. His amendment was ruled out of order on the ground that it would upset government revenues. In a division on the ruling, Deputy Speaker Ross Macdonald was upheld 85 to 63.

Mr. Macdonald quoted from the Commons rule which states that only a cabinet minister can sponsor an amendment altering the revenues which the government has planned to collect.

John T. Hackett, P.C., St. Catharines, Que., led an unsuccessful drive to have the government withdraw a section which will allow the treasury board to rule that certain business transactions are aimed at "improper" avoidance or reduction of tax liability. Mr. Abbott said the section was aimed at plugging loopholes some were using to evade income tax.

Stanley Knowles, C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre, pleaded for greater income tax exemptions. He suggested they should be lifted from $750 to $1,200 for single persons and from $1,500 to $2,400 for married persons.

Mr. Abbott said none would be more pleased than he to raise the exemptions. But he had given in his budget the reason they could not be lifted. At present, the exemptions were better than those provided in the United States and the United Kingdom.

ROYALTIES QUESTION
J. M. Macdonnell, P.C., Muskoka-Ontario, and A. L. Smith, P.C., Calgary West, urged the government to rescind a section which makes farmers pay tax on oil well royalties. The members contended a Privy Council ruling had made it clear that sale of oil is realization of a capital asset and therefore not subject to tax.

Mr. Abbott said this was a question of policy, but he would "see what, if anything, can be done."

Study of all sections was completed, but adoption was postponed until today at the request of the opposition.

Mr. Abbott tabled supplementary estimates of $197,067,420 to cover expenditures unforeseen earlier in the session. Main amounts will go to the Health and Veterans' departments to cover health grants to the provinces and pension increases to veterans.

Some progress was made in renewed study of estimates of the Resources Department.

SUMMER CAMPS

Probably no greater contribution to human happiness and well-being has ever been made than the instituting of summer camps for boys and girls. Of all the inventions that the ingenuity of man has devised it comes the nearest to filling a long felt want. For it has provided an outlet for the energies of youth and thereby saved the sanity of innumerable mothers.

Time was when the mothers of children at the kid age looked upon the summer vacation with horror and dread. It was their stretch in purgatory when Johnny and Jimmie and Mary and Susie roamed through the house shouting and screaming like Indians on the warpath, and when there was no peace nor rest nor quiet to be had by night or day.

LITTLE SAVAGES
It was a season when little savages defied all the rules of civilization; when they broke up all of Mother's cherished antiques to make bonfires; when flowerbeds were trampled down to make a baseball field; when perpetually hungry youngsters gobbled up the cake prepared for company, and when Mother's nerves were worn to tatters trying to answer the continual cry of: "M-o-t-h-e-r, what will we do next?"

For school was out, and hordes of children, too immature to have any resource within themselves, were simply bored to death. So it was no wonder that the youngsters got into trouble; that they formed bad habits, and that they got to running with the kids across the tracks who taught them all the things they all that poor Mother could do was just to buckle on her martyr's crown and bake another batch of cookies.

Then some inspired individual, who should have a monument as high as a church steeple, had the bright idea of corralling the restless children into a safe place in the country, or on the mountains, or at the seaside, where everything was new and strange and interesting and different, and where they could do all the things they couldn't possibly do at home.

NO REST FOR MOTHER
But there the situation was—a lot of bright, healthy, curious youngsters with nothing to do, no way to kill time, no way to amuse themselves that they hadn't exhausted. They were bound to get into mischief. And

GIVES MOTHER A CHANCE
The summer camp was the opening of a new Heaven and a new earth to the average boy and girl. They were disciplined without knowing it, and they gave each other discipline that no child would take from his parents. It made the cry-babies ashamed to whine. It taught the spoiled brats that they were no better than the other children. And, above all, it got them away from the incessant nagging that children get at home.

And not least of the many virtues of the boys and girls summer camp is that it gives Mother a chance to calm down and spruce herself up some, instead of being the family drudge, and especially to get acquainted with her husband. Also, a two or three months' separation changes the whole relationship of mothers and children and puts them on a better ground, for Mother's nagging is more nerves than anything else, and the best cure for it that has ever been devised is the summer camp.

RED DEER, Alta (CP)—Mrs. Agnes Conrad of Caroline, Alta., today was acquitted of the April 1 murder of her two and a half year old adopted son David. The 22-year-old wife of a rural mail carrier was arrested April 2 and charged with the murder of the youngster after the bruised body of the child was found lying in the Conrad farm house about 40 miles southwest of here.

Young Liberals Want More Effective Voice

VANCOUVER (CP)—A resolution stating young Liberals are "no longer treated as a welcome asset to the party" was endorsed Tuesday night by the Young Liberal Association of British Columbia.

In the resolution's preamble, the association said young Liberals receive "nothing but a brand of extreme paternalism, calculated to discourage all interest and initiative in political affairs."

The association urged a policy

"which will appeal to Canadian youth by giving them a more effective voice in political affairs."

GARBAGE HITS BOTTOM—Accumulation of tons of garbage at the city wharf in the Inner Harbor is blamed on low tides during the daytime this week. Dredging of the harbor floor at the wharf would allow movement of the refuse, workers claim. But until the dredging is carried out and when there are low tides, scows which take the garbage seaward cannot get away from the wharf. Garbage disposal facilities are said to be far from adequate with the city and districts growing by leaps and bounds.

Court Rule Forbids Ship Strike In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — Judge J. W. Clancy Wednesday issued an injunction restraining the National Maritime Union (C.I.O.) and two affiliated unions from taking steps toward striking.

Fifty-five Atlantic and Gulf coast shipping companies also were enjoined from enforcing a "lock-out."

Judge Clancy issued the injunction under the Taft-Hartley Labor Act.

The three unions and four other maritime unions had threatened a country-wide strike.

Weissmuller, Crabbe In 'Swamp Fire'

It's Tarzan against Flash Gordon when ex-swimming stars Johnny Weissmuller and Buster Crabbe collide with each other in Paramount's latest Pine-Thomas thriller, "Swamp Fire," now at the York Theatre. Those given to imaginative conjecture might foresee the battle of the century taking place, with a lot of betting on the outcome, if in the present opus, the two huskies were portraying their previous roles. But in "Swamp Fire," there's no such battling between the king of the jungle, depending only on his prodigious strength, and the comic strip hero, equipped with all the scientific weapons of the future.

ROYAL THEATRE

Robert Young and Maureen O'Hara star in "Sitting Pretty," which is now showing at the Royal Theatre for the fourth week. Also starring is Clifton Webb who has what many believe to be the plum comedy role of the year. He is Belvedere, the mystery man whose curious background equips him for everything from changing locks to changing baby's diapers, and dancing the rumba.

Victorian Breaks Mark At Rifle Meet

Four of the marksmen taking part in the British Columbia Rifle Association's 64th annual prize meeting at Heals Range, which got under way Tuesday, talk over the record-breaking performance of Sgt. Arthur Sherwin, 5th Regiment, who made an outstanding through-the-range triple possible score of 105. From left to right they are: S. Sgt. E. O. Roberts, Victoria; Lt.-Col. S. Johnson, Calgary; William Louie, Kamloops, and Maj. T. W. Hall, New Westminster.

Above is a general view of the butts at Heals Range as marksmen prepared to get the five-day shoot under way. It will continue throughout the week, with the Lieutenant-Governor's match winding up the event Saturday morning. Prize-giving will be held the same afternoon. (See story page 14.)

No less keen than their male counterparts, the women competitors in the meet are present under the blue skies at the west Saanich range. Aiming at left is Gwen Spencer-Heathley of Vancouver, who is spending the summer in the city. Others in the picture, from left to right, include: Sub-Lt. (NS.) H. Mullin of H.M.C.S. Naden, Mrs. Jean Dunbar, Victoria; Mrs. Marguerite Larsen, Calgary, and Mrs. Eileen Leary.

ODEON THEATRE

In signing up Patrick Holt on a long term contract, the Rank Organisation have picked an actor who has all that it "takes" for stardom—talent, looks, pleasing voice and personality! His big chance has come with "The October Man," in which he plays his first featured role as Harry Carden, a chemical engineer.

Interesting point about Patrick Holt's role in Eric Ambler's production for Two Cities "The October Man," now at the Odeon Theatre, is that he is made up to look ten years older than he really is.

ATLAS THEATRE

In a penthouse party sequence of "Cass Timberlane," co-starring Lana Turner and Spencer Tracy on the Plaza screen, Lana is supposed to be excited at the news that a "movie star" is expected to attend.

When the "movie star" showed up in the scene, Lana, taken off guard, registered the pop-eyed wonder called for in the script. For Director George Sidney had "borrowed" someone from an adjoining stage—Walter Pidgeon.

Pidgeon proved so adept at playing "himself" that Sidney lengthened the originally planned two-minute scene to five.

DOMINION THEATRE

Constance Dowling, featured player in Republic's critically acclaimed drama, "The Flame," starring John Carroll, Vera Ralston, and Robert Paige, now showing at the Dominion Theatre had a tribute given her terpsichorean abilities courtesy of the Los Angeles electric company.

It happened on the night club set where Constance, attired in a slinky black gown, was doing a torrid dance solo. Just as she reached the climax of her number, a fuse blew out.

CAPITOL THEATRE

With "Call Northside 777," starring James Stewart, and currently at the Capitol Theatre, Twentieth Century-Fox is said to have achieved another motion picture triumph in the widely hailed technique of hard-hitting realism and authenticity which proved so outstandingly successful in such films as "Boomerang," "Kiss of Death," "13 Rue Madeleine," and "House on 92nd Street." Its story lifted right out of the headlines of Chicago newspapers—the Chicago of 1932, of gangland wars, bootlegger battles and cop killings—the events and characters depicted in "Call Northside 777" are not fictional, rather "any similarity with persons either living or dead, is intentional."

San Francisco, then straight across mid-continent to Chicago on our historic Overland Route (No. 3 on the map). Or continue on to Los Angeles; then to Chicago through the colorful southwest on our Golden State Route (No. 2 on the map). Or, if your destination is New York, Washington or other Atlantic seaboard points, swing through the old south to New Orleans on our Sunset Route (No. 1 on the map) and then to your destination. Return on your choice of northern U.S. or Canadian lines. Or reverse the direction just outlined.

Your accommodations will be comfortable chair cars or Pullman sleeping cars on famous trains including deluxe streamliners. To California and on our Sunset and Golden State Routes you may also use economical tourist Pullmans. All are air-conditioned.

Rail Issues Retain Leadership

NEW YORK (AP)—The main direction of the Stock Market was upward today but a number of issues wandered off the road. Rail issues once more took over market leadership with gains of fractions to more than 2 points.

Next best showing was made by steel company stocks but gains here were smaller.

The market got off to a fast start but soon bogged down.

The long-popular oil ran into considerable profit-taking sales and a couple of recent favorites were hammered down more than a point.

30 Jones closing averages:
Dow industrials 190.87, up .14
20 rails 62.90, up .18
15 utilities 35.95, off .05
65 stocks 71.13, up .08
Total sales, 1,560,000.

Seek Loan Of Pumps For Flood Recovery

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Vancouver authorities continued today to negotiate with the water works department of this city for the loan of heavy duty pumps to help British Columbia recover from the recent flood.

Utilities Commission officials said a maximum of three pumps could be provided. Still standing in the way of the loan is the matter of motors. The pumps are provided with 25-cycle electric motors and British Columbia is on 60-cycle current.

V. A. McKillop, assistant general manager, hoped for further information shortly.
